

All Things Are Ready

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel, 1895

William Augustine Ogden

1. "All things are rea-dy," come to the feast! Come, for the ta - ble now is spread; Ye
 2. "All things are rea-dy," come to the feast! Come, for the door is o - pen wide; A
 3. "All things are rea-dy," come to the feast! Come, while He waits to wel - come thee; De-
 4. "All things are rea-dy," come to the feast! Leave ev - 'ry care and world-ly strife; Come, fam - ish-ing, ye wea-ry, come, And thou shalt be rich-ly fed.

 place of hon - or is re-served For you at the Mas-ter's side. Hear the in - vi-
 - lay not while this day is thine, To - mor - row may ne - ver be. Hear the in-vi-ta - tion, feast up-on the love of God, And drink ev - er - last-ing life.

- ta - tion, Come, "who - so - ev - er will"; Praise
 "Who - so - ev - er will." Hear the in - vi - ta - tion, "Who - so - ev - er will." Praise

God for full sal - va - tion For "who-so-ev-er will."
 God for full sal - va - tion, "who-so-ev-er will."

