

The Beautiful Hills of Rest

Nellie G. Rice, 1915

William James Kirkpatrick

♩=95

1. Some-where on the beau-ti - ful hills of rest, Far a - bove earth-ly tri - al and care,
 2. Some-where on the beau-ti - ful hills of rest Are the dear ones we loved and have lost;
 3. Some-where on the beau-ti - ful hills of rest Shall the songs we have long wished to know

We shall meet our king and His prais-es we there shall sing On the beau-ti - ful, beau-ti - ful hills so We shall meet a - gain, free from sor - row and free from pain, And for - ev - er be num-bered with Heav'n's bright Float up - on the air with their mu - sic so sweet and rare, Till with rap - ture and tri - umph our hearts o'er-fair. On the beau-ti - ful, beau-ti - ful hills of rest, There are man-sions pre-pared for you and host. hills of rest, beau-ti - ful hills of rest,

Refrain

 - flow.

me; There's no need of the stars by night If our Sav - ior will be the light Of the
 for you and me;

beau-ti - ful, beau-ti - ful hills of rest.
 the beau-ti - ful hills of rest