

By Grace I'll Stand

J. H. A., 1908, alt.

Arthur Walwyn Evans, 1908

♩=120

1. Once I was far from Je - sus, A strang - er to His grace, But o'er the mount-ains
2. He's filled my life with bless-ing, And changed my heart's de - sire; To wit - ness for Him
3. So more and more of Je - sus I'm learn - ing ev - ery day; With such a pre - cious bleak and cold He sought my steps to trace; One day, praise God, He found me, And day by day My soul is all on fire; Full well I know that dan - gers Lie friend and guide I'll fol - low all the way; I can re - flect His im - age, And brought me to His fold, And now I feel His won-drous grace Can ne'er be full-y told.

thick - ly round my way, But keep-ing sight of Je - sus Christ I can - not go a - stray.
ev - ery-one a - round My tes - ti - mo - ny clear shall know: The Sav - ior I have found.

Refrain

Yes, by grace a-lone, God help-ing me, I'll stand. True and faith-ful till I reach the glo-ry land, Just trust-ing Him each mo-ment for His help di - vine, Con-fess-ing Je-sus, My bless-èd Sav-ior.