

Callest Thou?

Helen Marion Burnside, 1898

George Crawford Hugg

$\text{♩} = 105$

1. Call - est Thou thus, oh Mas - ter? Call - est Thou thus to
2. Com - est Thou thus, oh Mas - ter? Com - est Thou thus to
3. "Child," said the gra - cious Mas - ter, With voice di - vine - ly me? Wear - y and heav - y la - den, Long - ing to come to Thee, me? Un - trimmed, my lamp, and dy - ing, And house not meet for Thee.

sweet, "I on - ly ask a wel - come, Rest for My wear - y feet!"

Out in the lone - ly dark - ness Thy dear voice sounds so sweet, I am not worth - y,
Thou art so great and ho - ly, I am by sin un - done, I am not worth - y,
Come o'er my low - ly thresh - old, Dark, and de - filed by sin, Tho' all un - worth - y,

Mas - ter, oh no, Not worth - y to kiss Thy feet.
Mas - ter, oh no, Not worth - y that Thou shouldst come.
Mas - ter, oh come, I pray Thee, come, en - ter in.