

Choose Ye Today

Frances Jane (Fanny) Crosby (1820–1915)

William Howard Doane (1832–1915)

♩=110 legato

1. A bless - ing for you— will you take it? Choose ye to - day; A
 2. A death to be feared— will you fear it? Choose ye to - day; A
 3. The cross of your Lord— will you bear it? Choose ye to - day: There's
 4. The bond - age of sin— will you break it? Choose ye to - day: The word from the heart— will you speak it? Choose ye to - day: Will you be - lieve, or your voice that in - vites— will you hear it? Choose ye to - day. Straight is the por - tal and life in that cross— will you share it? Choose ye to - day: Soon will your time of pro - wa - ter of life— will you take it? Choose ye to - day. Come to the arms that are Sav - ior ne - glect? Will you re - ceive, or His mer - cy re - ject?

 nar - row the way; En - ter, poor soul, and be saved while you may;
 - ba - tion be o'er, Then will the Spir - it en - treat you no more,
 o - pen for you, Hide in the wounds that by faith you may view;

Pause, ere you an - swer, oh, pause and re - flect— Choose ye to - day.
 Think what may hang on a mo - ment's de - lay— Choose ye to - day.
 Je - sus no long - er will stand at the door— Choose ye to - day.
 Death ere the mor - row your steps may pur - sue— Choose ye to - day.

