1. Come, ye who from your hearts be - lieve That Je - sus an - swers prayer, Come
2. If in the "fount-ain filled with blood" Our sins are washed a - way Come 3. From ev - ery pre - cious, gold - en hour We spend in fer - vent prayer, We bold-ly to a throne of grace And claim His prom-ise there, That, if His love in bold-ly to a throne of grace, Re - joic - ing that we may Come bold - ly to a ga - ther strength from day to day For each re - turn - ing care; And, while with true, be-us a - bide And we in Him are one, What - ev - er in His name we ask It throne of grace, And bless the Lord our king— Who fills our grate-ful hearts with praise, And

- liev - ing hearts We bow be - fore His throne, There's not a prom-ise He has made But sure - ly will be done. tunes our tongues to sing. Come lov - ing - ly and trust - ing - ly, Take Je - sus at His word, For we may call our own.

He has said, "the prayer of faith Was nev - er yet un - heard."
