

Come, Listen to My Story

George Ratcliffe Woodward, 1902

16th Century English, harmonized by J. R. Lunn

♩=103

1. Come, list - en to my sto - ry, Christ - us na - tus ho - di - e: Born
 2. Came an - gels down, a num - ber, On the mid - night of His birth: "Ye
 3. Then rode three kings to - ge - ther, O - ver de - sert, hill, and dale: Nought
 4. A - way then ban - ish sor - row; Na - to Re - gi psall - i - te; Sith is the King of glo - ry, Rex de Vir - gi - ne. No - shep - herds, wake from slum - ber: Peace, good - will on earth, And car - ing for the wea - ther, Sleet, and snow, and hail. They Christ is born this mor - row, Ben - e - di - c - te. With

- well, Now-ell, good news I tell, God comes on earth a strang-er: E - ya! Em-bliss on high," the an - gels cry, "To you is born and giv - en, E - ya! of came from far, led by a star, With beams that ne - ver va - ry: E - ya! full an - gels eke and shep - herds meek, And with yon east - ern sag - es, E - ya! let

- man - u - el Lies cra - dled in a man - ger.
 maid Ma - rie, Th'al - might - y Lord of Heav - en."
 fain they are To see the Babe of Ma - ry.
 us go seek The new - born King of ag - es.