

The Crimson Wave Is Flowing

Frances Jane (Fanny) Crosby, 1899

William Howard Doane

$\text{♩} = 105$

1. Oh, the crim-son wave, hal-le - lu-jah! Now is flow-ing full and free; Bro - ther, 2.. Oh, the crim-son wave, hal-le - lu-jah! Now is flow-ing deep and wide, From the
3. Oh, the crim-son wave, hal-le - lu-jah! It will give thee joy with - in; 'Tis the
4. Oh, the crim-son wave, hal-le - lu-jah! If its full - ness fill thy soul, Thou wilt come, while yet there's par - don, And the Sav - ior pleads with thee.

Refrain

cleans-ing fount - ain o - pened, At the cross where Je - sus died. Oh, the blood of Christ re - deemed thee, And will cleanse from ev - ery sin.
sing His love that saves thee, While e - ter - nal ag - es roll.

crim-son wave now is flow - ing, Bless-èd crim-son wave, life be - stow - ing; Hear the flow-ing-free, be - stow-ing free;

voice that pleads with thy heart to-day, "Come and wash thy sins a - way."