

Day of Life and Joy

Eliza Edmunds Hewitt, 1903

A. A. DuBois

♩=110

1. When Je - sus left His rock-y tomb, Ap - pear - ing to His own; The Tree of Life burst
2. O bless-èd hearts that hear His voice Be - neath the cy - press shade! That in His change-less
3. When Je - sus left His rock-y tomb, That morn-ing, calm and fair; The liv - ing light dis-in - to bloom, The sun of glo - ry shone. In His tri - umph o - ver death and sin, That love re - joice, Their souls in Him are stayed. Pre-cious hope, that looks be - yond the grave! In

- persed the gloom, And in His joy we share. In the bless - ing of these East - er hours, We hap - py East - er day, E - ter - nal life thro' Him we win; The stone is rolled a - Je - sus we shall meet; His eye will watch, His arm will save; We'll ga - ther at His sing His sav - ing name; The buds of spring and love's sweet flow'rs, His glo - ry shall pro -

Refrain Sprightly

- way.
feet. 'Tis East - er, beau - ti - ful East - er; Re - joice! 'tis won - der - ful East - er; We
- claim.

ritard.
greet thee glor-i - ous East - er, Beau - ti - ful day of life and joy!