

For the Might of Thine Arm

Charles Silvester Horne (1865-1914)

Irish Tune

$\text{♩} = 105$

1. For the might of Thine arm we bless Thee, Our God, our fa - thers'
2. For the love of Christ con - strain - ing, that bound their hearts as
3. We are watch - ers of a bea - con whose light must ne - ver

God; Thou hast kept Thy pil - grim peo - ple by the strength of Thy staff and one; For the faith in truth and free - dom in which their work was die; We are guard - ians of an al - tar that shows Thee ev - er rod; Thou hast called us to the jour - ney which faith - less feet ne'er trod; For the done; For the peace of God's e - van - gel where - with their feet were shod; For the nigh; We are child - ren of Thy free - men who sleep be - neath the sod; For the might of Thine arm we bless Thee: our God, our fa - thers' God.

might of Thine arm we bless Thee: our God, our fa - thers' God.
might of Thine arm we bless Thee: our God, our fa - thers' God.