

Glorious Land

Augustus Damon Fillmore, 1867, alt.

John Franklin Kinsey, 1877

♩=97

1. The Bi - ble re - veals a glor - ious land, Where an - gels and glo - rified
2. Out - gush - ing be - neath the throne of God, The ble - ss - ed Lamb at 3. Then come, my dear child - ren, let us haste To fin - ish our work with un - spir - its dwell; Where plea - sures ne'er end at God's right hand, And His right hand, There run - neth the crys - tal stream of life, A

- fal - tering hand, And soon the sweet joys of Heav'n we'll taste, With an - thems of praise for - ev - er swell.

Refrain

foun - tain of joy in that glo - rious land. We shall meet in that glo - rious all the re - deemed in that glo - rious land.

land, We shall meet in that glo - rious land, We shall meet in that glo - rious glo - rious land, glo - rious land, land, And sing ev - er - more with the an - gel band.