

The Glorious Day Is Coming

Francis A. Simkins, 1887

John Robson Sweney

♩=108

1. Oh, the glor - ious day is com - ing, By faith its dawn - ing see! When
2. Yes, the Lord is sure - ly com - ing, His king - dom draw - eth nigh, When
3. Then the Con - queror of the Na - tions Shall ban - ish ev - ery wrong, And right - eous - ness shall rule the world, And men in - deed be free: When gloom and night shall flee a - way, And er - ror writhe and die. Lo, earth, now sad with sighs and tears, Shall then be filled with song: And wea - ry souls shall cease to mourn, By weight of woe op - pressed; When He shall come, and by His power Re - deem the world from sin; The we shall lay our ar - mor down, Our earth - ly war - fare o'er, Called

Refrain

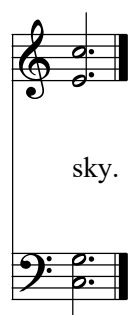

Christ shall reign in ev - ery heart, By ev - ery tongue con - fessed.
"thou - sand years" so long fore - told In that day shall be - gin. Oh, the home to be with God, and reign With Him for - ev - er - more.

glor-ious day is com-ing— Yes, 'tis com-ing! Hal-le - lu-jah! Shout, O Earth, the joy-ful cry! See! the glo-ry beams are ev-en now ill - um-ing The glow-ing ban-ners of the morn-ing sky.