

The God Who Answers by Fire

Lelia Naylor Morris, 1903

Lelia Naylor Morris

♩=85

1. Two al - tars on a hill-side made, Two off - erings on the al - tar laid; Let Him be
 2. But now the faith-ful pro-phet, see, Up - on his God calls might-i - ly: "A-mong the
 3. Up - on God's al - tars still we lay, Our hum-ble off - erings day by day; Un-wor - thy
 4. As - cribe to God for-ev - er - more Thanks-giv - ing, hon - or, love and power; To God the God, who hears our cry, And send-eth fire down from on high. From morn-ing light till close of peo - ple be it known, That Thou art God, and Thou a - lone." And ev - en while E - li - jah tho' the sa - cri - fice, The gift of love He sanc - ti - fies, He heeds the heart's sin - cere de - Fa - ther, God the Son, And God the Spir - it, three in One. In songs of praise as - cend - ing day, Hear Ba - al's pro-phets loud - ly pray.

Refrain

 calls, Be - hold, the fire from Heav - en falls.
 - sire, And sends the Ho - ly Ghost and fire. The God who an - swers by fire, The higher, To Him who an - swers still by fire.

God who an - swers by fire, Let Him, let Him, let Him be God. The God who an - swers by fire, The God who an - swers by fire Let Him, let Him, let Him be God.