

Going On

Jessie Brown Pounds, 1900

Charles King Langley, Sr.

♩ = 105

1. The fires of the sun shall be quenched at last, And the stead-fast stars be
 2. As souls that re-mem-ber and feel and thrill, We shall live when seas are
 3. From glo-ry to glo-ry our path shall be, And from grace to per-fect gone; But souls of the ran-somed shall live in strength, And they still shall be go-ing dry; As sep-a-rate be-ings, to love and will, We shall live, nev-er-more to grace; Through all the wide years of e-ter-ni-ty, We shall look on our dear Lord's on. Go-ing on, go-ing on, They still shall be go-ing on; For-die. Go-ing on, go-ing on, They still shall be go-ing on; For-face. Go-ing on, go-ing on, We still shall be go-ing on; For-Go-ing on, go-ing on go-ing on;

Refrain

- ev-er and aye, through e-ter-nal day, They still shall be go-ing on.
 - ev-er and aye, through e-ter-nal day, They still shall be go-ing on.
 - ev-er and aye, through e-ter-nal day, We still shall be go-ing on.
