1. The Lord is my good shep-herd; I shall not be in need. He
2. Though I may walk through val-leys Of dan-ger and of strife, I 3. He sets for me a ta-ble Be-fore my an-gry foes, And leads me to the pas-tures Where I may safe-ly feed. He leads me by still fear not an-y ev-il, For He will guard my life. His shep-herd's staff will with the oil of glad-ness, My heart now ov-er-flows. His good-ness and His wa-ters, So I a drink may take, In paths of right-eous liv-ing, All guide me, And com-fort to me bring, And of His lov-ing kind-ness, I mer-cy Shall sure-ly fol-low me. I'll dwell with-in His pre-sence For for His good name's sake.
