

The Gospel Train

Johnson Oatman, Jr., 1898

George Crawford Hugg

♩=100

1. There's a train that runs from the earth to the sky, And
2. There is naught to pay for a ride on this train, For
3. This train makes no noise as it runs thro' the land, For it
4. This train has nev - er been wrecked on the road, But ev - ery one may ride if they will, It starts from that fount - ain that Christ has paid the fare for us all, The poor and the need - y, the tra - vels on the road - bed of love, Its crew is com - posed of a land - ed all her souls in the sky; It can take all the world at

Refrain
ne - ver runs dry, And it stops on the heav - en - ly hill.
blind and the lame, Can all go, if on Christ they will call. O heav - en - ly band, And its motor pow'r is faith from a - bove.
a sin - gle load, Get on board, bid earth's tri - als good - bye.

sin - ner, get on board of the Gos - pel train, For it runs straight a - head, nev - er back; It starts on the sche - dule 'midst the wind or the rain, And it nev - er runs off of the track.