

Hark to the Bells

John Henry Kurzenknabe, 1891

John Henry Kurzenknabe

$\text{♩} = 140$

1. Bells of praise! Bells of praise! How the mer-ry bells are ring-ing, Joy-ous notes their
2. Bells of prayer! Bells of prayer! Oh, how ten-der-ly the plead-ing, Wear-y, long-ing
3. Bells of joy! Bells of joy! Loud and clear the peals are tell-ing Of the songs of 4. Bells of peace! Bells of peace! O - pen wide the gates of Heav-en, Vic-t'ry won, and mess-age bring-ing! Come where love and mer-cy meet, Bells of praise ring clear and sweet.

souls en-treat-ing, Have a par-don full and free! Bells of prayer en-treat-ing thee!
prais-es swell-ing. Wor-ship in yon tem-ple hall; Bells of joy pro-claim the call.
rest is giv-en; O - pen for the ran-somed soul, Bells of peace so sol-ern toll.

Refrain

Hark to the bells so sweet-ly blend-ing; Go with heart and voice at-tend-ing; Love and mer-cy meet you there, In this hour of praise and prayer.