

He Knocks Today

Mrs. E. M. Meader, 1898

Walter Stillman Martin

$\text{♩} = 87$

1. The Sav - ior is call - ing you, list to His voice, He knocks at your heart's door to -
2. He plead - eth so pa - tient - ly, "O - pen to Me," And yet you will bid Him de -
3. The time is fast pass - ing, the end draw - eth nigh, Then haste thee and o - pen the

- day; O will you not hast - en to make Him your choice, For how do you dare to de -
- part; How worn with His foot - steps the path - way must be, Be - fore the closed door of your door; The An - gel of Death, as he swift pass - eth by, Will close it, to o - pen no

Refrain

- lay? He's knock - ing, He's knock - ing, Pa - tient - ly now, with anx - ious brow He's heart.
more. He's knock - ing just now, knock - ing just now;

knock - ing, He's knock - ing, O - pen and let Him come in.
knock - ing just now knock - ing just now, and let Him come in.