1. The cares of the day oft per - plex us, The path-way we tread oft seems
 2. That life which the sun ne - ver bright - ened, With mis - ery and pain ev - ery - 3. There's no one can help us like Je - sus, No bur - den's too heav - y for

- bare; The sun seems to shine but for o - thers, There seems to be no one to where, May reach out in faith and may find Him Who waits ev - ery sor - row to Him; He wants ev - ery life filled with sun - shine; With light that shall ne - ver grow care; But some - one is watch - ing our foot - steps, He's guid - ing us o'er the dark share. He holds out His hands pierced and wound - ed, He knows of the bur - den each dim. And dai - ly He's watch - ing our foot - steps, And lead - ing us all the lone way; His love, like the glor - i - ous sun - shine, Will drive all the sha - dows a - way.

 day; He'll take all the thorns from our path - way, And drive all the sha - dows a - way.
 way; We'll trust in His dear lov - ing kind - ness, To drive all the sha - dows a - way.
