

Heralds of Light

C. Cooke, 1859

Isaac Baker Woodbury, 1848

1. Speed a - way! speed a - way! O ye her - alds of light, There are mil - lions en -
2. Let the Church to the help of Je - ho - vah draw near— Come with love, and with
3. We will lay on the al - tar our mon - ey and prayers: And we'll bathe ev - ery
4. Speed a - way! speed a - way with a mes - sage from Heav'n, To all na - tions of

- shroud - ed in na - ture's dark night, Who are will - ing to hear, and the truth to re - faith, and with fer - vor in prayer! Let her fling to the breeze the pure ban - ner of offer - ing in sym - pa - thy's tears— For the Jews and Moham - me - dans, Gen - tiles and all; men let the tid - ings be giv'n That Mes - si - ah has tri - umphed, His foes are all

- ceive, But know of no Sav - ior on whom to be - lieve. O they're dy - ing by truth, And en - list in the strug - gle her warm - heart - ed youth; Let the par - ents and On Je - ho - vah by night and by day we will call, And ye her - alds of slain, And the earth as an E - den is blush - ing a - gain! O great Sav - ior, let thou - sands in sin ev - ery day! Speed a - way! speed a - way! speed a - way!

child - ren, and ev - ery - one say, "Speed a - way! speed a - way! speed a - way!"
mer - cy, oh! make no de - lay! Speed a - way! speed a - way! speed a - way!
no - thing this con - quest de - lay Speed a - way! speed a - way! speed a - way!