

He Was Nailed to the Cross for Me

Frederick Arthur Graves, 1906

Frederick Arthur Graves

♩=100

1. What a won - der-ful, won - der-ful Sav - ior, Who would die on the cross for
2. Thus He le - ft His heav-en - ly glo - ry, To ac - comp-lish His Fa - ther's
3. He was wound-ed for o - ur trans - gress-ions, And He car - ried our sor - rows,
4. So He ga - ve His li - fe for o - thers In Re - deem-ing this world from me! Free-ly shed-ding His pre - cious life - blood, That the sin - ner might be made free.

plan; He was born of the vir - gin Ma - ry, Took up - on Him the form of man.
too; He's the Heal-er of ev - 'ry sick-ness, This He came to the world to do.
sin, And He's gone to pre-pare a man-sion, That at last we may en - ter in.

Refrain

He was nailed to the cross for me, He was nailed to the cross for He was nailed to the cross, He was me; On the cross cru-ci-fied for me He died; He was nailed to the cross for me.

nailed to the cross,

