

Hidden Away with Jesus

May Anderson Hawkins, 1904

Margaret Mae Simpson

♩=94

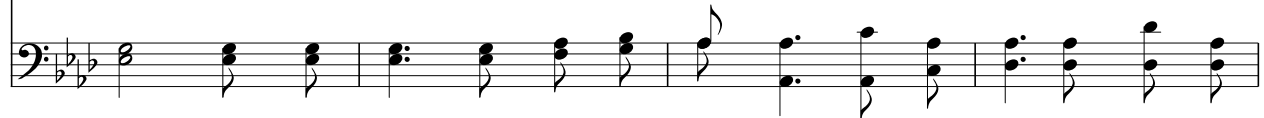

1. In the sec - ret of His pre - sence! Hast thou found this blest re-
2. Lis - ten, dear one, Christ is yearn - ing— With an un - told stress of
3. Do not ques - tion of the mor - row, Nor the path where He may
4. In the se - cret of His pre - sence, See - ing but His bless - ed

- treat, Hid a - way from car - less seek - ers, And from hur - rying, rest - less need— Straight in - to His hal - lowed pre - sence Ev - ery seek - ing heart to choose In His ten - der love to lead thee; All our plan - nings we must face, Thou, e'en thou, tho' weak and help - less— Just a sin - ner saved by feet? Has thou sought and yet hast found not? Art thou sad and hea - vy lead. Cease thy hur - rying and thy strug - gling; Cast thy - self prone at His lose If we would a - bide each mo - ment In His pre - sence rest - ful, grace— Thou canst go and tell the lost ones Of the Sav - ior thou hast eyed? Dost thou whis - per: "O - thers find Him, Yet my plead - ings are de - nied"?

feet; Yield thy life, thy will, thy "all things" To His guid - ance full, com - plete.
calm, Find - ing in His love en - fold - ed, For each hurt a heal - ing balm.
found, Till, in soil now parched and bar - ren, Heal - ing wa - ters may a - bound.

Refrain

Blest rock of sal - va - tion! Once riv-en for me, Safe-ly hid in Thy Blest rock of sal - va - tion, sal - va - tion, yes, for me, bo-som, I'm rest-ing, yes rest-ing in Thee.

 I'm rest-ing in Thee.