

If Christ Should Come Tonight

Harriet E. Jones, 1897

J. Howard Entwisle

♩ = 115

1. If our Lord should come to - night, With the bright an - gel - ic host, Would He
2. If our Lord should come to - night, Come as King and Judge of all, Are there 3. Christ as King and Judge will come, 'Tis re - cord - ed in His book; He will find us in His vine-yard, Ev - ery ser - vant at his post? Thro' the pre - cious cleans - ing a - ny here as - sem - bled Who would trem - ble at His call? Is there one, oh, is there bid us stand be - fore Him, Not a soul will He o'er - look! Are we rea - dy, ev - ery blood, Are our gar - ments clean and white? Are we dwell - ing in the light, Should our one Far from Je - sus and the light, Un - re - pent - ant, lost, un - done, If the one? Are we in the rai - ment white, If the Judge of all man - kind Should ap -

Refrain
Lord ap - pear to - night? Are we watch - ing, are we wait - ing In the rai - ment pure and Judge should come to - night? watch - ing, watch - ing, wait - ing, wait - ing, In the rai -
- pear this ve - ry night?

white? Should we joy at His ap - pear - ing If our Lord should come to - night?
- ment pure and white? to - night?