

I'll Count My Blessings

Carrie Elizabeth Ellis Breck, 1901

George Blackburn Holsinger

$\text{♩} = 95$

1. I lift my heart to - day in praise To Him Who loves me so, Whose mer - cy crown-eth all my days, And
2. I thank Him for un - cloud-ed skies— For love be - yond my ken— That when my path in sha-dow lies, The
3. I go to meet a - no - ther year, With faith no doubt can dim, God reign-eth, and I will not fear, But makes my cup o'er - flow. O have I loved Him as I should For all His bless-ings free? Praise sun - shine comes a - gain. I thank Him for the hopes ful-filled— For ev - ery an - swered plea, That trust my way with Him. Then if that way be bright or dark, Let peace un - shak - en be! And

Refrain

God Who giv - eth naught but good, For He is good to me! I'll count my bless - ings—though life was not all I willed, My God is good to me! I'll count my ma - ny bless-ings— I will let me, like the soar - ing lark, Sing "God is good to me!" I'll count my ma - ny bless-ings— I will Count them o'er and o'er— I'll tell my Fa-ther's good-ness— I will love Him more, I'll count my count them o'er and o'er— love Him more and more I'll count my ma - ny bless - ings, boun-ti - ful and free— Yet I can nev-er count them all— So good is God to me!

bless-ings, O how boun - ti - ful and free—