

I'll Sing My Temptations Away

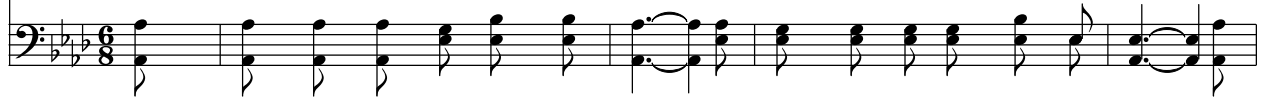

Mary Irene McLean, 1894

Augustus Franklin Myers

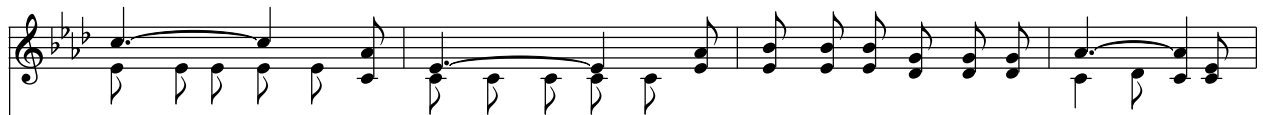

♩=102

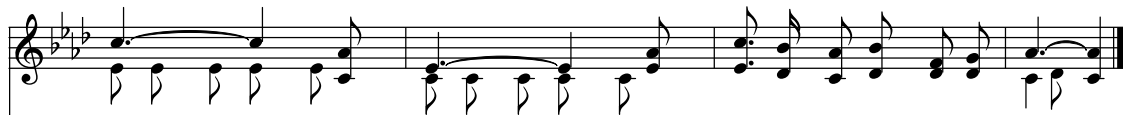

1. I'll sing my temp-ta - tions a - way, For tho' they be art - ful and strong, I'll
2. When world-ly al - lure-ments are strong, To Christ in my weak-ness I'll flee. And
3. When tem - pests with-in and with - out Sug - gest that my faith is all wrong, I'll
4. And when all temp-ta - tions are o'er, A song of re - demp-tion I'll sing, And sing of One strong-er than they, And sing till they flee from my song. find in His pre - sence a song, And sing the temp-tat - ions from me. I'll sing till grim sha - dows of doubt Are lost in the sun-light of song. I'll swell on the heav - en - ly shore The prais-es of Je - sus my king.

sing, I'll sing sing of my Sav-ior, I'll sing of my Sav-ior, I'll sing of my Sav-ior all day, all day.

I'll sing, I'll sing
I'll sing my temp-ta-tions, I'll sing my temp-ta-tions, I'll sing my temp-ta - tions a-way,

