

I'm an Heir

Haldor Harris, 1916

Stuart B. Hayes

$\text{♩} = 84$

1. I'm an heir with the Son of God, Saved from
2. I'm an heir, and it cheers my soul, Tho' the 3. I'm an heir to the home a - bove, Thro' my sin by His cleans-ing blood, And my name is re - cord - ed With the re - deemed on thun-ders a - round me roll, For my Fa - ther is watch-ing O - ver me day by Sav-ior's re - deem - ing love, Since my par - don He free - ly Pur - chased on Cal - va - high; Pain and sor - row I here may know, Life but day; No - thing ev - er my hope can dim, For in

- ry; By His change - less e - ter - nal grace, I'm ac - lit - tle of wealth be - stow, But there's glad-ness un - end - ing Wait - ing me by and faith I am trust - ing Him, And He ten - der - ly guides and Bless - es me all the

- cord - ed with Him a place, Where, 'mid plea-sures un - told, I'll Dwell thro' e - ter - ni -

Refrain

by.
way. I'm an heir, joint heir with Christ, To the
- ty. to the home a-bove, a joint heir with the Christ home so bright and fair; I'm an hea - ven - ly home so bright, that's so bright and so fair; heir, His blood suf - ficed, And I'm for the pre - cious blood of God's own Son as my ran - som suf - ficed, go-ing e'er long Its glo-ries for aye to share!

its glo-ries to share!