

In the Secret Place of God

Llewellyn A. Morrison, 1896

Walter Lewis

♩ = 90

1. He that dwell - eth in the sec - ret place of God, Most High, When the
2. He a for - tress is and ref - uge un - to all who trust; From the
3. He that said it: "I will an - swer him who calls on Me; I will days of bit - ing bit - ter - ness and tra - vail draw - eth nigh, With the fowl - er's snare and pest - i - lence He ran - som - eth the just; His hon - or and de - liv - er him, from trou - ble set him free; Becrim - soned lin - tel o - ver and the shel - tering sol - ace sure, Doth a - truth is shield and buck - ler, so the po - tent prom - ise rings, And there's

- cause his love is on Me still, My name to glor - i - fy, I will

Refrain
- bide be - neath the sha - dow of Om - ni - po - tence, se - cure.
rest, de - light and safe - ty 'neath the co - ver of His wings. Art thou save and sa - tis - fy him, and will give him life on high."

dwell-ing in this hid-ing, Un-der - neath the sprink-led blood? Is thy soul, by grace, a-bid-ing In the

rit. sec - ret place of God? A tempo There is full - ness there, and sweet - ness; All thy pow'rs find full em-ploy, Glad-ness, com-fort-ing, com-plete-ness, Peace, and ev-er-last-ing joy.