

Is It Nothing to Thee?

Daniel Boardman Purinton, 1899

William Howard Doane

$\text{♩} = 88$
1st Voice

1. Is it no-thing to thee, is it no-thing to thee, That thy Lord and Re-deem-er His
2. Is it no-thing to thee, is it no-thing to thee, That thy sin la-den feet from the
3. Is it no-thing to thee, is it no-thing to thee, That e-ter-ni-ty com-eth and love hath re-vealed? Is it no-thing to thee, is it no-thing to thee, That He Sav-ior have turned? Is it no-thing to thee, is it no-thing to thee, That the death draw-eth near? Is it no-thing to thee, is it no-thing to thee? Canst thou

2nd Voice Response

died on the cross and thy par-don sealed? Oh, 'tis some-thing to me, yes, 'tis voice of His mer-cy thy heart hath spurned? Oh, 'tis some-thing to me, yes, 'tis go when He call-eth, with-out a fear? Oh, 'tis some-thing to me, yes, 'tis some-thing to me, That the voice of His love still is call-ing to-day; Oh, 'tis some-thing to me, That He call-eth me back, where-so-ev-er I roam, Oh, 'tis some-thing to me, When at last I shall stand on e-ter-ni-ty's shore, Oh, 'tis some-thing to me, yes, 'tis some-thing to me; I will hear from my heart and with some-thing to me, yes, 'tis some-thing to me, That I still may re - turn and be some-thing to me, yes, 'tis some-thing to me, To be ho - ly and hap - py for-

Refrain

joy o - bey.
 wel - comed home. Come, come, come, He's call - ing to - day,
 - ev - er - more.

Haste, haste, haste, no long-er de - lay, List, list, Je - sus is call - ing thee now,

Come, come, be - fore Him now.