

I Thought of You, Mother

Lizzie DeArmond, 1913

George W. Bacon

♩=110

1. I thought of you, mo-ther, when tempt-ed to stray, When far from my Sav - ior I
 2. I thought of you, mo-ther, tho' long I have trod The path-way that led me from
 3. I thought of you, mo-ther— no more will I roam; The an - gels are shout-ing, "A wan - dered a - way; In all the rough plac - es it kept my life true, Be-home and from God; Your trust ne - ver fail - ing, your won - der - ful love, Are sin - ner's come home!" When safe I am stand - ing at Heav - en's bright goal, I'll

Refrain
 - cause of your mes - sage, "I'm pray - ing for you!"
 guid - ing my foot - steps to Je - sus a - bove. I thought of you, mo - ther, I look for the mo - ther whose faith saved my soul.

thought of you, mo-ther, The love ne-ver fail-ing, that fol-lowed your son; I thought of you, mo-ther, I thought of you, mo-ther, My soul for the Sav-ior your pure life has won.