

The Judgment Day (Lee)

John Alfred Lee, 1911, alt.

David Elijah Dortch

$\text{♩} = 104$

1. There'll be re-joic - ing in that day By all the child-ren of the King; All
2. There'll be a crown-ing on that day Of His true serv - ants, one and all; 'Twill
3. There'll be a part - ing on that day— The right-eous shall be on His right; The tears will then be wiped a - way, And loud ho-san - nas sweet-ly ring. There'll be for those who toil and pray, For His re - deemed, both great and small. There'll wick-ed all, in sore des-pair, Shall turn a - way to end - less night. There'll be re-joic - ing in that day, Re - joic - ing in that day; There'll be re-joic - ing in that day, By be a crown-ing in that day, A crown-ing on that day; There'll be a crown-ing in that day, Of be a part - ing on that day, A part - ing on that day; There'll be a part - ing on that day, Of all the child-ren of the King.

His true serv - ants, one and all.
all who stand be - fore the King.