

Keep On Singing

Agnes C. Ellingwood, 1915

Agnes C. Ellingwood

♩ = 92

1. Have you grown dis-cour-aged, wear-y, A-mid the cares of life? Do you
 2. Do you wan-der from the Sav-ior, And some-times lose the way? Does the 3. Hear the Sav-ior gent-ly plead-ing, "Come lay your sins on Me; I will oft-en grow dis-heart-ened And fal-ter in the strife? Je-sus knows a-bout the bur-den, He'll tempt-er oft as-sail you And beck-on day by day? Ne-ver fear! be strong, cour-a-geous, The give you full sal-va-tion, Will par-don, set you free"; Just be-lieve His pre-cious prom-ise, Ac-bear you safe-ly thro'; Then sing a song of glad-ness, He'll care for you.

 Lord will sure-ly win; He'll con-quer ev-ery tri-al And save from sin. Keep on sing-ing! The
 - cept Him for your own; Come sing your psalms of glad-ness Be-fore His throne.

world is bright and fair; God is o'er us, His love is ev-ery-where; He will keep you, Just trust Him all the way, And keep on sing-ing, Thro' ev-ery day.

