

The King Soon Is Coming

Robert Emmett Winsett, 1918

Robert Emmett Winsett

$\text{♩} = 93$

1. Bro - ther and sis - ter, look up 'tward the sky; The King soon is com-ing,
2. King-doms are fall - ing, judg-ments now have come; The na - tions are trem-bling,
3. Then O, be rea - dy, do not now de - lay; The Bride-groom is com-ing
4. Signs of His com-ing, soon will be ful - filled; The Lord has a peo - ple your re - demp-tion draw-eth nigh; Then lift up your head, re - joice and be gay—for they see their fi - nal doom; The hea - vens shall shake, the hearts of men fail, soon to catch His bride a - way; Yes, Je - sus our Lord in glo - ry shall come, who in faith o - bey His will; A bright gold-en crown, a robe spot-less white,

Refrain

The Bride-groom is com-ing to catch His bride a - way.
Those who are not rea - dy, you'll hear them weep and wail.
For those who are rea - dy, to bear them safe - ly home. Then be rea - dy, He'll give all the faith-ful, who win the sac - red fight.

O, be rea-dy; The Bride-groom is com-ing, to catch His bride a - way; Sin-ners will fear Him, saints all will hear Him; And rise up to meet Him, and join the bright ar-ray.