

The King's Highway

Thoro Harris, 1876

John Robson Sweney, 1881

$\text{♩} = 115$

1. Wher-ev - er you may be, what - ev - er you may see, That would lead you in-
2. The mea-dows may be green, where by - path stile is seen, Turn a - side, the li-
3. For on en - chant - ed ground, there's dan - ger all a - round, And a thou-sand plea-
4. Our God will guide us right, and walk-ing in the light, We shall win a crown

- to e - vil, say you nay, I will not turn a - side; what - ev - er may be - tide,
- ttle flow-ers seem to say; Be sure you take no heed— they're try-ing to mis-lead—
- sant voic-es bid you stay, With fin - gers stop your ears, and ne - ver mind the jeers, of glo - ry in the day, When Je - sus calls His own to - ge - ther round the throne,

Refrain

I'll keep a - long the mid-dle of the King's high-way.
Just keep a - long the mid-dle of the King's high-way.
Just keep a - long the mid-dle of the King's high-way. The King's high-way, the King's high-way,
Who keep a - long the mid-dle of the King's high-way.

I'll keep a - long the mid-dle of the King's high-way; I will not turn a - side; what-ev - er may be-tide,

I'll keep a - long the mid-dle of the King's high-way.