

The Last Great Day

Daniel Sidney Warner, 1893

Barney Elliott Warren

$\text{♩} = 96$

1. The earth shall melt with fer - vent heat, The heav - ens pass a - way, And
 2. The trump will sound, the Lord re - turn, And time no long - er stay, The
 3. The el - e - ments that now com - pose The ball on which we stay, To
 4. So, all who make this world their god, Can here no long - er stay; Their
 5. The quick and dead, o'er land and sea, Will leave their mor - tal clay; And
 6. The Church of God no more shall need, This poor ter - res - trial home; For all man-kind their doom shall meet, In that last great day.

Refrain

 world in judg - ment flames con - sume, In that last great day.
 smoke and va - por must dis - solve, In that last great day. Oh, that last great day, is fond - est hopes will all have fled, In that last great day.
 put on im - mor - tal - i - ty, In that last great day.
 she shall dwell with Christ, her head, At the last great day.

com - ing ve - ry soon, 'Tis the judg - ment day, and the lost shall weep; 'Tis the crown-ing day, and the saints shall greet In that last great day.