

Let Me Lean on Thy Bosom

Maria L. James, 1881, alt.

John Robson Sweney

♩ = 77

1. Let me lean on Thy bo-som, dear Sav-ior, I pray, Tho' worth-less and wea-ry at 2. Let me lean on Thy bo-som, dear Sav-ior, I pray, Tho' err-ing and sin-ful, and
 3. Let me lean on Thy bo-som, dear Sav-ior, I pray, For there I new strength shall ob-
 4. Let me lean on Thy bo-som, dear Sav-ior, I pray, Held close in Thy lov-ing em-
 5. Let me lean on Thy bo-som, dear Sav-ior, I pray, My hand in Thine own while I heart; Let me come! Give me shel-ter; Oh, turn not a-way, Bid my gloom and my sor-row devile; Tho' I've wan-dered, for-give me, I come back to-day, And en-treat for Thy fa-vor and

 -tain; To meet ev-ery tri-al that pass-es this way, To bear with-out mur-mur all
 -brace; Nor leave me, no, no, lest I wan-der and stray, And a-gain I lose sight of Thy sing Of the grace which hath saved me, of this hap-py day, When my heart owns that Je-sus is

Refrain

- part.
 smile.
 pain. Let me lean on Thy bo-som, dear Sav-ior, I pray; Let me face. Let me lean on Thy bo-som, Let me lean on Thy bo-som, I pray, King.

lean on Thy bo-som, dear Sav-ior, I pray.
 Let me lean on Thy bo-som, I pray, Let me lean on Thy bo-som, dear Sav-ior, I pray,