

Listen to the Blessèd Invitation

Eliza Edmunds Stites Hewitt, 1888

William James Kirkpatrick

♩ = 103

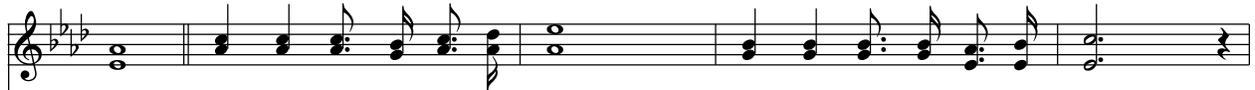

1. Lis - ten to the bless-èd in - vi - ta - tion, Sweet-er than the notes of an - gel
 2. Wear - y toil - er, sad and heav - y la - den, Joy - ful - ly the great sal - va - tion
 3. Come, ye thirst-y, to the liv - ing wa - ters, Hun - gry, come and on His bount-y
 4. "Him that com-eth," blind or maimed or sin - ful, Com - ing for His heal - ing touch di-5. Com - ing hum - bly, dail - y to this Sav - ior, Breath-ing all the heart to Him in song, Chim-ing soft - ly with a heav'n-ly ca - dence, Call - ing to the pass-ing see; Close be - side thee stands the Bur - den Bear - er, Strong to bear thy load and feed; Not thy fit - ness is the plea to bring Him, But thy pres-sing ut - most

 - vine, For the cleans-ing of the blood so pre - cious, Prove a - new this gra - cious prayer; Com - ing some day to the heav'n-ly man - sions, He will give thee wel - come throng.

Refrain

 thee.
 need. Him that com-eth un - to Me. Him that com-eth un - to Me, line.
 there.

Him that com-eth un-to Me, I will not ev - er cast out.

