

Little Sunbeams

Eben Eugene Rexford, 1902

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel

♩=90

1. I think God gives the child-ren, as through the land they go, The
2. The clouds may hide the sun - shine of Heav - en from our sight, And
3. Then let us live our miss-ion of sun - beams day by day, And most de - light - ful mis - sion that an - y - one can know. He wants us to be life have much of sor - row to mar the heart's de - light; But if like faith-ful scat - ter joy and bright-ness a - bout us all the way; Let's chase a - way life's sun-beams of love and hope and cheer, To bright-en up the sha - dows that sun-beams, we child-ren do our part, We'll bring a ray of bright-ness to sha-dows with lov - ing thought and deed And be the sun-shine mak - ers, of

Refrain
oft - en ga - ther here. ev - ery sha - dowed heart. O we are lit - tle sun-beams, sent down from God to which the world has need.

man; In all life's sha-dy plac-es, we shine as best we can.