

The Lost Sheep

Fances Jane (Fanny) Crosby, 1875

William Howard Doane

♩=105

1. From the hun - dred sheep which the Shep-herd's care Had pro - tect - ed ma - ny a 2. There was joy, great joy in the Shep-herd's fold, When His long, long jour-ney was
3. Oh, that Shep-herd kind is the Son of God, Who has borne our sor - row and day, There was one went forth, and its rest - less feet In the des - ert wan-dered a - o'er, And the poor lost sheep that had gone as - tray, In His arms He ten - der - ly care; It was He who said, "There is joy in Heav'n O'er the wan-d'rer's pe - ni - tent

- way. Then the Shep - herd's heart was grieved, And He kind - ly said: "On the bore; Then the Shep - herd's heart was glad, And He said to all: "What a prayer"; To the soul He bring - eth back to His fold of grace, To His mount - ain it will lang - uish and pine. I will go and search for the mo - ment of re - joic - ing is Mine!" For I love my sheep that I pre - cious fold of mer - cy di - vine, How His heart goes out, for He sheep I lost, I will leave the nine-ty and nine."

lost and found, More than all the nine-ty and nine.
loves that one More than all the nine-ty and nine.