

Loyalty to Christ

Lou. P. Barrett, 1894

Matthew Lindsay McPhail

♩ = 95

1. Our hearts have felt the rap - ture of the pre - sence of our God, We're
 2. We've heard the call of Je - sus as it e - choes thro' the soul, Louder
 3. We've hosts of sin to con - quer in the name of Christ our king, We've
 4. In "Loy - al - ty to Je - sus" will we ev - er do His will, The press - ing on to vic - t'ry in the paths too long un - trod, The than the call of trump - et or the sol - emn drum - beat's roll, The souls to win for Je - sus till with joy the heav'ns shall ring, And God that leads our forc - es will di - rect and bless us still; His cross of Christ our sym - bol and sal - va - tion thro' His blood, Our hosts are march - ing on.

 God who calls to du - ty, or heart - serv - ice asks the whole, As He is march - ing on.
 Gos - pel words to car - ry till the dist - ant isles shall sing— That God is march - ing on.
 ev - er - last - ing prom - is - es He will in us ful - fill, As He is march - ing on.

Refrain

Loy - al - ty to Christ as - sures us Vic - to - ry so grand and glor - ious; All our foes shall fall be - fore us, Our ritard.

God is march - ing on.