

The Marriage Supper

Carrie Elizabeth Ellis Breck, 1896

Henry Lake Gilmour

♩=98

1. In the soul's bright home be - yond the sky, In a land where the ran - sored ne - ver
2. O the bride shall shine in bright ar - ray, With her tears all for - ev - er wiped a -
3. From all sin for - ev - er - more re - leased, They will come from the west and from the
4. We shall praise Him by the crys - tal tide, When the Lamb that was slain is glo - ri -

die, There will be a roy - al ban - quet by and by, 'Tis the great mar - riage sup - per of the Lamb.
- way; There will be a great re - joic - ing on that day, At the great mar - riage sup - per of the Lamb.
east, For all na - tions will be ga - thered at the feast Of the great mar - riage sup - per of the Lamb.
- fied; And the ran - sored Church of God shall be the bride At the great mar - riage sup - per of the Lamb.

Refrain

Are you go - ing to be there? Are you go - ing to be there? At the great mar - riage sup - per of the Lamb; With your wed - ding gar - ments on, Will you meet the loved ones gone? At the great mar - riage sup - per of the Lamb.

ritard.