

Marvelous in Our Eyes

Donald Scott Lundin, 1907

Donald Scott Lundin

♩=104

1. In the clouds of heav'n re - turn - ing To the earth a - gain, Soon we'll meet the
2. Rise and trim your lamps, ye vir - gins, For the mid - night nears; Keep them filled with
3. Bless - èd are those faith - ful ser - vants, At our Lord's re - turn, Whom He'll find a -

King of glo - ry, And with Him shall reign. Tho' re - ject - ed by the build - ers, Who did Him des - oil, and burn - ing, Till the Lord ap - pears. Gird your loins a - bout with truth, keep Look - ing to the
- wake and watch - ing; All the rest shall mourn. He'll re - ceive them to Him - self, to Dwell in par - a -

Refrain
- pise, We'll be changed and be like Him—
skies, Wait - ing for our Bride - groom King— 'Tis mar - ve - lous in our eyes. Sing hal - le - lu - jah!
- dise; God shall wipe a - way their tears—

Let the an - them ring; Shout loud the prais - es Of our Sav - ior King: To His throne of Hal - le - lu - jah!

end - less glo - ry, We with Him shall rise, Clad in robes of spot - less white— 'Tis mar - ve - lous in our eyes.