

The Master's Call

Frances Jane (Fanny) Crosby, 1869

William Fiske Sherwin

♩=125

1. The Mas - ter is come, and call - eth for thee, He stands at the door of thy
 2. The Mas - ter has come, with bless - ings for thee, A - rise, and His mes - sage re -
 3. The Mas - ter has come, and call - eth thee now, This mo - ment what joy may be
 4. He waits for thee still, then haste with de - light, Oh, fly to the arms of His heart, No friend so for - giv - ing, so gen - tle as He, Oh, say, wilt thou

 - ceive; Thy ran - som is pur - chased, thy par - don is free, If thou wilt re - thine; How ten - der that smile that il - lum - ines His brow, A pledge of His love; Press on to that beau - ti - ful man - sion of light, Pre - pared in His

Refrain

let Him de - part?
 - pent and be - lieve. Pa-tient-ly wait - ing, ear-nest-ly plead - ing, Je-sus, thy Sav - ior, fa - vor di - vine. Pa-tient-ly wait - ing, plead - ing, king-dom a - bove.

knocks at thy heart, Pa-tient-ly wait - ing, ear-nest-ly plead - ing, Je-sus, thy Sav - ior, wait - ing, plead - ing,

knocks at thy heart.