

A Message of Hope

Ella Southworth Clark, 1909

Ella Southworth Clark

♩ = 90

1. There's a mess-age full of hope For the pen-i - tents who mourn, With a
2. There's a mess-age full of hope, Tho' their ma - ny sins ap - pear Like a 3. There's a mess-age full of hope, When at last we bid fare - well To our heart of sor - row weep - ing o'er their sin; For our mount - ain reach - ing up - ward to the sky, And the friends and all those earth - ly scenes for aye; For the bles - èd Lord has said, "He that com - eth un - to Me, I will spir - it low may sink 'Neath the bur - den, in des - pair, And they Mas - ter we have loved Is the pi - lot who will guide All the

Refrain

ne - ver cast a - way, but take him in." fear that no de - liv - er - er is nigh. Christ can save and keep, we know; He will faith - ful to the land of end - less day.

wash as white as snow, 'Tis a mess-age full of hope; Tell it out wher-e'er you go.