

My Brother, Are You Ready?

John Michael Bowman, 1900

John Michael Bowman

$\text{♩} = 90$

1. Oh, my bro - ther, are you rea - dy for your Lord to come? Have you
2. Oh, my bro - ther, are you faint - ing in the heat of day? Are you
3. Oh, my bro - ther, are you trust - ing in the Lord your God? Are you 4. Oh, my bro - ther, are you sink - ing as you walk the wave? While your 5. Oh, my bro - ther, are you watch - ing till the morn - ing light Breaks up - prayed to Him your err - ing ways to save you from? Are you hea - vy la - den, foot - sore, while up - on the way? Keep on walk - ing in the ho - ly paths your fa - thers trod? Keep on Sav - ior is so near with o - pen arms to save, Does your

- on the fields of E - den you have kept in sight? Is your keep - ing in His foot - steps to that heav'n - ly home? Where no trust - ing Je - sus and His ho - ly will o - bey, Press on pray - ing while a - long this heav'n - ly way you plod, Till your faith grow weak - er while the an - gry storm you brave? Keep on faith un - cloud - ed thro' the long and wea - ry night, Till the

Refrain

sor - row ev - er shall ap - pear?
for the king - dom now is near.
lov - ing Sav - ior's voice you hear. Oh, my bro - ther, are you rea - dy for your pray - ing, bro - ther, ne - ver fear.
glor - ious morn - ing shall ap - pear?

Lord to come? Are you faint - ing while the cross you bear? Oh, keep watch-ing, trust-ing, pray-ing till you reach your home, There a crown of glo-ry you shall wear.