

My House Will Stand

Herbert J. Bryce, 1918

Daniel Brink Towner

♩=103

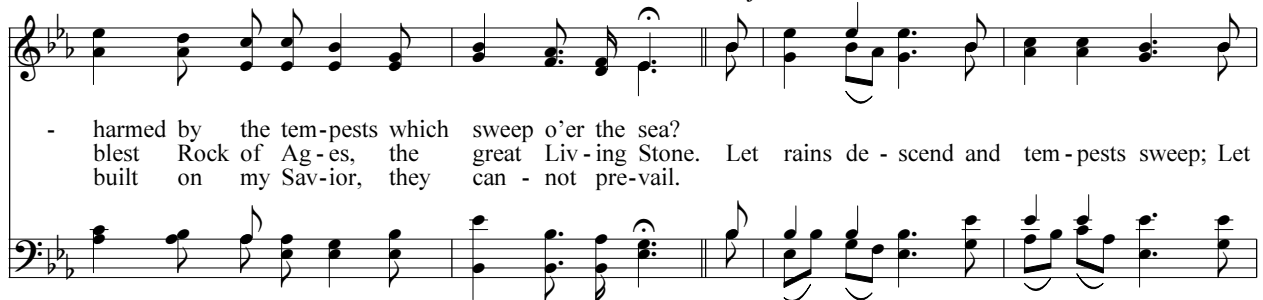

1. Are you build-ing your house on the rock or the sand, Are you liv - ing for time or the
2. O the Lord is the Rock; our foun - da - tion is tried, And is change-less to - day as in
3. Though the bil - lows may beat and the hur - ri - cane blow, I am fear - less and calm in the ag - es to be? Do you know that your struc-ture, though shak - en, will stand, Uncen - tu - ries flow, Though by men once re - ject - ed, He still doth a - bide, He's the face of the gale; For the Word of Je - ho - vah is sure, and I know, Having

Refrain

- harmed by the tem-pests which sweep o'er the sea?
blest Rock of Ag-es, the great Liv-ing Stone. Let rains de - scend and tem-pests sweep; Let built on my Sav-ior, they can - not pre-vail.

floods a - rise and bil - lows leap; My house will stand 'neath ev - ery shock, For I have built up-

- on the Rock