

My Old Bible

Anonymous, 1925

Fannie Evelyn Jay

♩ = 97

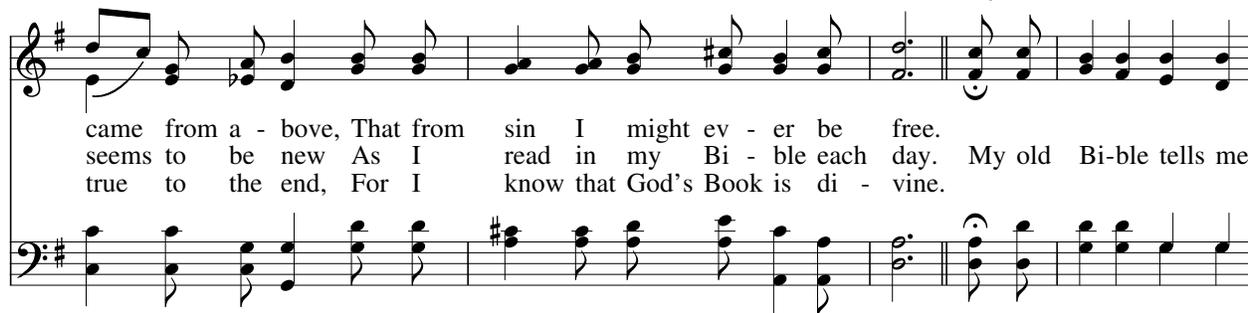

1. Tho' some leaves have a tear, and the cov - er shows wear, Yet my
2. For this Book is a guide, what - so - ev - er be - tide, For it
3. Then I will not des - pair, tho' I have grief and care, For I

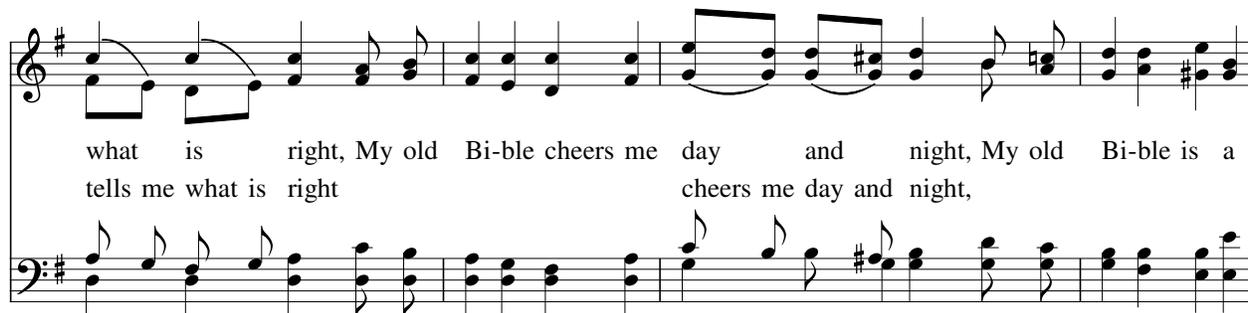

Bi - ble is pre - cious to me; For it tells how in love Je - sus bright - ens and light - ens my way; The old sto - ry so true, al - ways know that each pro - mise is mine; This old Book, like a friend, will be came from a - bove, That from sin I might ev - er be free.

Refrain

seems to be new As I read in my Bi - ble each day. My old Bi - ble tells me true to the end, For I know that God's Book is di - vine.

what is right, My old Bi - ble cheers me day and night, My old Bi - ble is a tells me what is right cheers me day and night, shin - ing ray, For it guides me all a - long life's way.

bright and shin - ing ray,