

O Blessèd Rest

Eliza Edmunds Hewitt, 1895

Benjamin Crispin Lippincott, Jr.

$\text{♩} = 75$

1. O bless-èd rest in Je-sus! There's no oth-er half so sweet As the
2. O bless-èd rest in Je-sus! Let me lin-ger at His side While I
3. O bless-èd rest in Je-sus! How it cheers me, day by day! For He peace He free-ly gives me When I tar-ry at His feet. There I tell Him all my sor-rows, And my joys to Him con-fide. He will strength-ens me for du-ty, And for ser-vice, by the way. And He tell the sins that grieve me, And His tones like dew-drops fall; "Fear ye ne-ver, ne-ver wea-ry, For He waits to an-swer prayer And He tells me of the ci-ty Where they need no star, no sun; There He'll

Refrain
not, for I've re-deemed thee, There is cleans-ing for them all."
whis-pers that He loves me, That He car-eth for my care. O give me joy-ful wel-come, When my earth-ly work is done.

bless-èd, bless-èd rest! Lean-ing on His lov-ing breast, When I'm heart to heart with Je-sus, What a bless-èd, bless-èd rest!