

O Land of God

Eben Eugene Rexford, 1902

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel

♩=83

1. In dreams I see the heav'n-ly land, With ver-dant vales on ei-ther
2. Thro' gates a - jar my ea - ger feet Go in to tread the gold-en
3. Then comes a low still voice to me; "Wouldst thou be of this com-pa-hand; Bathed in the sun - shine of a day, As fair, as sweet as those of street; And pro-phets, priests, and kings I see A grand and good - ly com - pa-

- ny Thou see-st in thy dreams, and sing The songs of Heav'n be-fore the

May. A day that ends not, and I hear Glad voic-es ring - ing far and
- ny, And in the midst, a great white throne I see, and Him who sits there-King? Then live, and dare, and do for God, And by and by, earth's jour-ney

- near With sweet-er songs than earth can know, The heav'n-ly songs that haunt us in; And oh, the awe that comes to me, When God's face in my dreams I trod, Thou shalt go in be - yond the gate And claim an heir of God's es-

Refrain

so.
see.
- tate.”

O land of God, so fair, so bright! O land in which there is no O land of God, so fair, so bright, O land in which there night! I dream of thee, and dream-ing, pray That I may wake in thee some is no night,

rit.

a tempo

day; I dream of thee, and dream-ing, pray That I may wake in thee some hap-py day.