

Our Home Beyond the River

Mrs. M. E. R. Satterlee, 1878

S. L. Tyler

$\text{♩} = 95$

1. Bright-ly shines the gold-en light, In our home be-yond the ri-ver; Ne-ver
2. Fair - est flow'rs in con-stant bloom, In our home be-yond the ri-ver, Fill the fails a shade of night, There the cloud-less day for - ev - er; Sweet-est air with sweet per - fume, And their beau - ty fad - eth ne - ver; All is mu - sic fills the air, In our home be-yond the ri-ver; Harps of gold are ring-ing beau-ty, sweet-ness, joy, In our home be-yond the ri-ver; Love and peace with-out al-

Refrain

there, Prais - es to the Lamb for - ev - er. Would you en - ter? Je - sus stands At the door with out-stretched hands.
- loy, Thrills the heav'n-ly heart for - ev - er.

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It features a treble and bass clef with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat) and a 3/4 time signature. The tempo is marked as quarter note = 95. The score includes two verses of lyrics, a refrain, and a final line of lyrics. The piano accompaniment consists of chords and single notes in the bass line.