

Our Savior Is Coming

James D. Vaughan & Flavil J. Hall, 1905

James D. Vaughan & Flavil J. Hall

$\text{♩} = 96$

1. Our Sav - ior is com - ing, the saints to re - ward, To
2. All the saints shall be changed, and the mar - tyrs shall rise, They shall
3. But the wick - ed shall mourn and la - ment in that day, And
4. Yes, the Sav - ior is com - ing, and it won't be long; O give them sweet rest from all suf - fering and care; And all who o - bey Him and meet their Re - deem - er high up in the air; O how they will shout as they call for the rocks and the moun - tains to fall, To hide them a - way from His how can you meet Him in that dread - ful day? The right - eous shall join in a

Refrain

hon - or His word, He will take to that home He's now gone to pre - pare. mount up the skies; In the first re - surrec - tion I'm long - ing to share. In pre - sence for aye; O sin - ner, great ter - ror thy heart shall ap - pall.
glad, hap - py song, The wick - ed be filled in that hour with dis - may.

that great day, O sin - ner, can you stand? Be saved; why long - er yet de - lay? And when Je - sus shall come with the bright an - gel band, He'll re - ceive you in that day.